Dear College Club Friends,

Please accept my best wishes for the New Year. I am grateful for all that you do to sustain our lovely club. I am having knee surgery mid-month, and Jean Singleton will be acting president. I am looking forward to seeing everyone in February. Stay warm and safe.

Fondly,
Beverly

All Committee Chairs! Please submit your 2017-18 Budget Requests by January 15th to the Treasurer - Lillian Gondree.

If a submission is not sent - the Budget Committee will have to rely on last year's budget line use.

Each Committee Chair should have kept track of requests made from the 2016-17 Budget and this should also be the basis for your Annual Report to the Membership.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Literary Club Activities

Reading Between the Wines: Thursday, January 5th

A Fatal Grace by Louise Penney.

Welcome to winter in Three Pines, a picturesque village in Quebec, where the villagers are preparing for a traditional country Christmas, and someone is preparing for murder. No one liked CC de Poitiers. Not her quiet husband, not her spineless lover, not her pathetic daughter—and certainly none of the residents of Three Pines. CC de Poitiers managed to alienate everyone, right up until the moment of her death. When Chief Inspector Armand Gamache, of the Sûreté du Québec, is called to investigate, he quickly realizes he's dealing with someone quite extraordinary. CC de Poitiers was electrocuted in the middle of a frozen lake, in front of the entire village, as she watched the annual curling tournament. And yet no one saw anything. Who could have been insane enough to try such a macabre method of murder—or brilliant enough to succeed?

Breakfast by the Book: Friday, January 20th

The December selection may seem familiar. That's because the book club discussion schedules in December was cancelled. So, The Nightingale by Kristen Hanna. Was carried forward to January. This book is about two sisters struggling to survive during World War II in France. One sister is rebellious and intent on fighting for France while the other simply wants to survive the war with her family intact. Both sisters learn who they are and what they are capable of as the war wages on. The Nightingale begins at the Oregon Coast in 1995 with an elderly woman who is dying of cancer. Her son is helping her to move to a retirement home. Her identity is not revealed. As her son is helping her, he sees a photo of a woman named Juliette Gervaise and asks his mother who she is. The elderly woman begins to remember the story of Vianne and Isabelle.

Marsha is the discussion leader and Delight Dann is the hostess. Social hour with coffee and goodies begins at 9:30 AM. If you are signed up and you cannot make it, please call Delight Dann. Book discussion will begin at 10:00 AM. All are welcome!

Have you ever seen 125 Dickens Village Houses set up in one room? Well, Welcome to Carolann's HOLIDAY WONDERLAND! Carolann is inviting the ladies of the Club to her home (180 Linwood Avenue, Buffalo) for dessert, coffee or tea and to spend an afternoon enjoying the decorations and holiday spirit. Since parking could be a problem, plan to share rides where ever possible. No reservations necessary! We will enjoy an afternoon of 'oohing and aahing' and spend a purely social afternoon with our College Club friends. Plan on arriving about 1pm. .

Monday, January 23rd:

Today will be a social/work afternoon spent at the Club. After lunch there will be time for games, viewing old classic T.V. classic programs and plain old talking. There will also be a questionnaire for you to indicate your interests, likes and dislikes for programming.

Monday, January 30th

We will have a fabulous program for you to enjoy today—as soon as our speaker confirms his invitation. Stay tuned for more information.
